2014 Presenters

Dr Glenn Cupit has taught child development to early childhood educators for 37 years. His core interest is children’s spiritual development and their interaction with electronic media. Being Vice President of the Australian Council on Children and the Media involves him in community education and children’s advocacy.

Donna Broadhurst is a counsellor who focuses on working with children and families, and specialises in using Child Centred Play Therapy. She currently runs a private practice and works with Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services in Mt Barker and Murray Bridge.

Vina Hotich is a child and adolescent counsellor with over 20 years experience working with children, teens and families in a therapeutic capacity. She has 2 adult children, and has explored yoga, meditation and other personal growth modalities.

Dr Mary Hood has worked with children and families in various agencies in South Australia and is now in private practice. She has been involved in introducing the Circle of Security Model to Australia from the beginning, so she is perfectly placed to outline the model and answer your questions.

Peter Hill is a nutritionist and psychotherapist who enjoys helping people rediscover their love of food and cooking. He incorporates an understanding of human behaviour and childhood development as he promotes a creative relationship with food and secure attachment with our children.

Dr Debbie James works with families to promote children's talking which is a critical platform for children's social, emotional and academic development. Debbie has worked in government, non-government and university sectors and currently works as a clinical speech pathologist.

Effective Living Centre

What is the Effective Living Centre?

The Effective Living Centre is a not for profit organisation run primarily by volunteers. It provides facilities and programs for people who want to share, broaden and develop their own vision and passion for life. Programs are grouped around the area of relationships including:

- positive parenting
- social justice
- sacred & creative
- progressive Christianity
- recreational activities

All our programs and events are offered in a conscious spirit of hospitality, inclusion and respect.

The Effective Living Centre is a community engagement and development project of Christ Church Uniting, Wayville, and is a progressive and evolutionary resource centre.

A primary vision is to contribute positively to the whole community. It is open and available to people of any social, political or religious belief who share our values of:

- Respect
- Compassion
- Inclusion
- Fairness
- Integrity
- Community

Would you like to contribute or become a Friend?

There are many ways that you can contribute to the Effective Living Centre. We invite you to consider becoming a Friend, or maybe a volunteer. Some of our volunteers work on the task groups, some host seminars, others like to contribute half a day in our office. Alternatively you may have some ideas for seminar topics that you may like to suggest.

To receive our tri-annual newsletter (either electronically or by Australia Post) please contact us and let us know your details.

Our office is open Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 10am to 3pm. We are more than happy to have you drop in, call or send us an email.
